Product Replacement:

For recommendation of replacement products, please contact your local sales representative. Alternatively, please submit any enquiries via the e2v website (www.e2v.com/contact-us)

Reason for Discontinuance:

As part of e2v's ongoing review of its product portfolio, the affected products are due to be removed from the sales list due to component or material obsolescence or unviable economics for continued supply.

Last Time Buy Date:

Customers are requested to confirm all last time buy (LTB) orders by the 16th of October 2015. Where current fiscal budgets are a constraint, customers are instead requested to confirm their intent on LTB orders for the following fiscal year (2016) by this time.

Where no response is received, the product will be withdrawn from e2v's portfolio and all manufacturing capability removed.

Last Ship Date:

The target delivery date for all LTB products is the 31st of March 2016. Confirmed delivery dates will be provided on receipt of the LTB order.

Responses and queries:

All responses and queries should be directed to e2v's regional sales representatives. Alternatively, please submit your queries via the e2v website (www.e2v.com/contact-us) e2v will provide the standard warranty conditions for each product type covering product workmanship. Confirmed warranty claims received after the LTB shipping date will be credit only.

Repairs:

Limited repairs will be available after the shipping date. Where e2v is unable to repair any products returned, the customer will receive credit subject to the terms and conditions detailed in the LTB warranty document.

This Information is provided solely in connection with the affected products described above. The supply of the Affected Product(s) shall be subject to e2v's General Terms and Conditions of Sale or any specific contractual terms agreed in writing between the parties. All warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute or common law are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.
